Preventing fraud and corruption

This preventing fraud and corruption training workshop will empower you to plug the holes in your fraud and corruption prevention policies by benchmarking against the latest developments in strategies and techniques and by sharing new initiatives. You will learn to protect your organization with knowledge of fraud trends, how to formulate a fraud prevention strategy and to identify vulnerable and potential areas of risk, recognize potential offenders, minimize the effects of fraud on your company, retrieve evidence from personal computers, uncover fraudulent schemes, investigate and draw up watertight cases, successfully navigate the legislative landscape, formulate an effective whistle blowing strategy and protect yourself against money laundering techniques.

This program will help to reduce the risk of fraud and error in organizations. Participants will be made more aware of the importance of strong internal controls and will understand the roles investigators play.

Objectives

On this training course participants will:

- Learn to detect and investigate fraud in the workplace
- Develop & implement a fraud prevention contingency plan
- Have guidance through real life war stories and case studies
- Have insights into the mind and psychology of a fraudster
- Take back and implement practical knowledge

Training methodology

Participants will learn by active participation during the programme through the use of exercise, case studies training videos and discussion. You will also have the opportunity to network with the speaker and other professionals and hear the views of experts in the field. You will analyze thought provoking case studies and participate in interactive sessions and will take back and implement practical knowledge.

Personal Impact

Participants will be able to:

- Learn from the training videos showing "how the fraudster perpetrates his crimes"
- Network with the trainer and other professionals in the field
- Hear the views of experts in the field
- Analyze provoking case studies

Organisational Impact

- Protect your organisation with comprehensive knowledge of fraud trends
- Formulate a fraud prevention strategy that will protect your organisation against crime
- Identify vulnerable and potential areas of risk
- Recognise potential offenders
- Minimise the effects of fraud on your company
- Retrieve evidence from personal computers
- Uncover fraudulent schemes
- Investigate and draw up watertight cases
- Successfully navigate the legislative landscape
- Formulate an effective whistle blowing strategy
- Protect yourself against money laundering techniques
